Dominicans Voting Today

First Free Ballot In 38 Years

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Dominicans voted today in their first free general elections in 38 years. Most of them hoped the result, expected to be known by Christmas Eve, would mean stable representative government after long years of dictatorship.

The closing campaign hours were marked Wednesday night by a brief outbreak of rioting in the capital. Riot police quickly restored order after three persons were injured by rocks.

Young agitators from the 14th of June Movement, a pro-Castro group, were in the middle of the rock-throwing, pistol-firing melee with followers of the conservative National Civic Union.

Dr. Viriato A. Fiallo, 67, of the Civic Union, and Juan Bosch, 53, of the left-of-center Dominican Revolutionary party, were leading candidates for president in a five-man contest.

Bosch was a narrow favorite. The chief question was whether his peasant followers had remained in his camp after a Jesuit priest made and retracted the charge that the party is Communist. Bosch dropped demands for a postponement of the election when the charge was withdrawn.

The voters also balloted for a vice president, a Congress of 74 deputies and 26 senators, and local and city officials.

The Congress will draft a new constitution. Freed of dictatorship by the assassination of Rafael Trujillo in May 1961, 800,000 to 1,000,000 Dominicans, from 18 years up, were eligible to vote. Illiterates make up about 50 per cent of the population.

3 Men Accused In Missile Plot

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—City law enforcement authorities arrested three Jackson men today for what they said was an attempt to sell missile blueprints to an agent of the Fidel Castro regime.

Officers said the men were seeking $600,000 for blueprints stolen from the Vickers plant here which manufactures missile parts.

The blueprints and plans, officers said, were concerned with the Nike missile.

The men were identified as Homer Lee Young, 45, and James W. Causey Jr., 22, and Anthony M. Whitehead, 20, a Vickers employee.

Missing Woodsman Is Found In Woods

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—It can be pretty embarrassing when a woodsman can't find his way out of the woods.

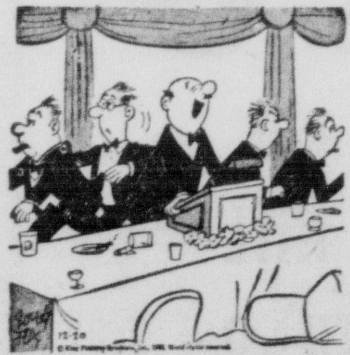

That's what happened to lumberman Eugene Rodgers, 61, of nearby Sheffield.

Rodgers had started home at quitting time Tuesday from a lumber company where he works as a scraper. He was following his own tracks through the woods.

As darkness started to fall, Rodgers got sidetracked onto the trail of a hunter whose path had crossed his own. By the time he realized the mistake it was too dark to follow any tracks.

A 70-man volunteer search party found Rodgers early Wednesday, cold but unharmed.

U.S. Giving Full Aid To Cuba Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is playing a passive role on stage in the negotiations for the release of 1,113 Bay of Pigs prisoners, but it is moving with full force behind the scenes.

The involvement of the U.S. government in the negotiations can be demonstrated by any close check of the statements and activities of negotiators and government officials since negotiations began shortly after the abortive invasion of Cuba in April 1961.

Reports from Havana indicate the negotiators may be very close to securing the release of the Cubans captured in the U.S.-directed invasion. Fidel Castro, in exchange for $53-million worth of food, drugs and equipment, may send the men back to the United States before Christmas.

President Kennedy has tried to disassociate himself from the negotiating committee's efforts. "This is being done by the private committee," he said at his Dec. 12 news conference, "and I am very sympathetic to their efforts."

But the committee, to stage the kind of operation the exchange involves, would need more than sympathy from the President.

The American Red Cross has reported that railroads, airlines and trucking firms are working round-the-clock to push the thousands of pounds of food and medicine into Florida for quick shipment to Cuba in case the deal is completed.

There have been reports that the President's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, is directing the government operation in support of the committee and its chief negotiator, lawyer James B. Donovan.

In New York, business sources said that Atty. Gen. Kennedy had made the requests for some of the food and drugs being readied for shipment to Cuba.

These sources said Kennedy described himself as acting as a private person, rather than as an administration official. Kennedy told the sources, they said, that the operation had the full support of the President but there were legal objections to his direct participation.

They said the attorney general also told them Castro might raise his price if he believed the government, rather than private parties, was supplying the food and drugs.

Barry Refuses To Consider No. 2 Position

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona says he will not seek the Republican vice presidential nomination in 1964 because "I don't want to be a big fat zero."

"Neither do I want to be the biggest ant on the hill, but I like the Senate," he said Wednesday night in a speech to the Phoenix Press Club.

Goldwater, chief spokesman for Republican Conservatives, said President Kennedy has proved to be a magician, making vice president Lyndon B. Johnson disappear from the political scene.

In answer to a question, Goldwater said it would be dangerous for Republicans to nominate presidential and vice presidential candidates whose views conflict.

Asked about differences between himself and New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, he said they are not as extreme as those dividing some conservative and liberal Democrats, and, said Goldwater, he doesn't think Rockefeller is as liberal as generally believed.

Nike Zeus Rocket Test Series Ends

POINT MUGU, Calif. (AP)—Successful firing of a Nike Zeus anti-missile rocket brought the Army's current test series to a conclusion here, officials said.

The launching Wednesday gave the Army 10 successful shots out of 19 efforts. Nine of the rockets were destroyed in flight.

Designed to intercept and destroy missiles at altitudes above 100 miles, the Nike Zeus has been under development since 1957, but Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has said he doubts that it is ready for full-scale production.

Mona Lisa Waits In Vault To Turn Odd Smile On U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—In Vault X of the National Gallery of Art, a celebrated lady rested today, waiting for somebody to let her out of a box so she can turn her inscrutable smile on Americans.

Under security guard seldom accorded a queen, the Mona Lisa of Leonardo da Vinci, the world's most famous portrait, arrived Wednesday from the Paris Louvre.

An ambassador of good will, she will be unveiled Jan. 8 by President Kennedy before a throng of notables, including members of the new Congress.

After three weeks in Washington, the 450-year-old painting will move on to the Metropolitan Museum in New York, then possibly to other American cities, before going home to France.

The Mona Lisa made the Atlantic crossing on the liner France. At New York Wednesday, her aluminum and plastic box, airconditioned to duplicate the humidity and temperature of the Louvre, was loaded with cere-

EX-Cop Given Prison Term

CLEVELAND (AP)—William Marlowe, a veteran policeman who was arrested Dec. 3 for burglary and touched off a wide-ranging investigation, was sentenced to 3-5 years in the Ohio Penitentiary today.

The 40-year-old former patrolman, who spent 11 years in the department, pleaded guilty Monday to 13 counts of burglary, grand larceny, forcible entry and possession of burglary tools. The loot was about 3,000 in an 18-month period.

Marlowe was caught leaving the Barh Lumber Co. with $57 in marked money planted there by fellow officers. He later implicated 10 other patrolmen as accomplices in his burglary operations.

Only two were indicted by the county grand jury, however. The others are back on the police force.

Donovan Plans Trip To Havana

Vast Stockpile Ready If Castro Gives Nod

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The freighter African Pilot arrived today at Port Everglades to transport millions of dollars worth of medicines and foodstuffs to Cuba to buy the freedom of 1,113 invasion prisoners if a barter deal with Fidel Castro materializes.

The Coast Guard patrolled the area where the 10,000-ton vessel tied up at 9:30 a.m. after a trip from Baltimore, Md.

Available for immediate loading were 11 box cars of barter supplies transported to the port, 30 miles north of Miami by the Florida East Coast and Seaboard Air Line railroads.

Other materials were being stockpiled by the American Red Cross, sponsor of the prisoner exchange deal, at suburban Opa-Locka Airport.

Representatives of U.S. government agencies, including immigration, health and state departments, prepared at Homestead Air Force Base south of Miami to receive the prisoners if they arrive.

James B. Donovan, the man who may have the answer, plans to return to Havana today after a flight to Miami. Donovan, a New York attorney, is the chief negotiator for the Cuban Prisoner Families Committee. He has said previously he hopes to free the men by Christmas.

He expressed continuing optimism before departing Havana for a quick trip to Miami Wednesday night. Donovan said he had submitted to Castro a preliminary list of medicines and drugs already contributed to the American Red Cross for shipment to Cuba. The Castro government prepared an analysis of the list.

Donovan had that analysis with him when he flew to Miami to obtain the latest list of additional contributions.

Castro has demanded the equivalent of about $53 million in supplies before he will release the prisoners.

Donovan's plane from Havana sidestepped Miami International Airport and landed at a seldom-used air strip a mile distant. When reporters and photographers arrived, the plane's occupants had vanished.

A cargo ship, the S.S. African Pilot, approached Port Everglades, Fla., to take on medicines and other supplies being donated to the Red Cross for shipment to Cuba as the price for release of the captives.

In Cuba, Castro was described by an official of the prisoners committee as sharing the negotiators' hopes for a quick exchange of his captives for U.S. food and medicine. Cuba is painfully short of both commodities.

Autoists Suspicious Of Hooded Meters

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—You just can't do anything for suspicious motorists.

That's how Chamber of Commerce members feel as a result of their attempt to give people with cars a Christmas gift.

The chamber got city fathers to agree to let motorists park for free. Parking meters along the curbs were hooded—but some motorists persist in raising the hoods and feeding coins into the devices.

Mayor Bates Harcum thinks maybe the chamber's program didn't get enough advance publicity.

"If the merchants are going to have this again next year, I'm going to suggest they have a printed sign on the bags indicating what they are for," he said.

Boy's Shirt Is Found In Strangest Place

PARSONS, Kan. (AP)—Rees Hughes was a heartsick 9-year-old when he couldn't find his new basketball shirt before leaving the church gym.

The coach had passed out the uniforms that day and Rees was happy to get one. Adults helped in the search, but the basketball shirt couldn't be found.

Rees went home, undressed to take a bath and found it—under his regular shirt.

Sentenced To Hang

George R. York (left), Jacksonville, Fla., and James D. Latham, Mauriceville, Tex., former soldiers who admitted killing seven persons in a five-state crime spree in 1961, have been sentenced to death by hanging Jan. 31, in Topeka, Kas. They were charged specifically with the murder of Otto E. Ziegler, 62, an Oakley, Kas., railroad man. They also killed two persons in Florida, two in Illinois, one in Tennessee, one in Colorado.

Government's TV Influence Is Debated

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—An Omaha, Neb., television executive, speaking directly to Newton N. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, accused the government of "attempting to influence television programming."

Frank Fogarty, executive vice president of the Meredith Broadcasting Co. which operates television stations in Syracuse, N.Y.; Kansas City, Mo.; Phoenix, Ariz., and Omaha, appeared Wednesday night with Minow on a television panel discussion. The subject was "What is right and what is wrong with television?"

"There are important people in government who equate television programming with sweatshops and bucket shops. The government is moving into an area that can't stop short of control," Fogarty said. "Television is in danger of losing its freedom."

Minow denied any threat of government censorship of the medium.

"We in government are interested only in seeing that there is more opportunity for more people to make judgements affect on 185 million people," Minow said.

Masheter Named By Rhodes To Be Highway Director

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—P. E. Masheter of Columbus was appointed today as highway director in the administration of Gov. Elect James A. Rhodes.

The 61-year-old director-designate served the highway department from 1923 to 1959, when he left to open his own engineering consulting service.

Masheter will take over the $22,500 post Jan. 14, the day Rhodes will be inaugurated. He is a native of Athens County and was reared in Fairfield County.

Masheter is a 1924 civil engineering graduate of Ohio State University. In 1929, he became assistant engineer of design and construction for the highway department in Chillicothe and in 1935, became engineer in charge of location and plans in this department's bureau of location and design.

Maze Of Complicated Problems Face Kennedy, Macmillan In Conference

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan waded today in a maze of complicated problems today in a determined effort to show the world that British-American friendship remains strong despite a wrangle over nuclear strategy.

The crush of their work forced them to prolong their talks an extra day.

The two were reported making progress toward a compromise on their divergent views of the value of the controversial Skybolt missile. The atmosphere in this sun-bathed resort, seemed to be one of rising hope.

The President and the prime minister were confronted by a long list of cold war problems as they got together at 10 a.m. at the hilltop mansion occupied by the U.S. chief executive on a breeze-swept hill overlooking the sea.

Moon Rocket Plans Studied

Overhaul Of Ranger Program Is Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—The space agency started a major overhaul of its trouble-plagued Ranger moon rocket program today.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration acknowledged that the action might delay its vital lunar research program—preparatory to manned landings on the moon—by several months. But NASA said that the change should vastly improve the chances of success in obtaining the first close-at-hand television pictures of the moon, and of depositing on the moon instruments to measure moonquakes and to give clues of the moon's geography.

Information of this type is absolutely essential before the first man can dare venture onto the moon—hopefully by the end of the decade.

The space agency already has let contracts for construction of the three-man Apollo spacecraft that will orbit the moon, and the two-man capsules that will be detached to carry Apollo crews to the moon and back to their orbiting vehicles.

The agency has been increasingly concerned over the continued failure of the multimillion-dollar Ranger program.

Five Ranger vehicles have been launched. The first two were engineering test vehicles that met with only limited success.

The three others were equipped to photograph the moon with television cameras and to send this data back to earth.

Only one of these hit the moon, and it failed to send back any information. Two others missed the moon and apparently went into orbit around the sun.

6th Success Recorded By Titan 2 Missile

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Titan 2, the United States' most powerful military missile, has recorded its sixth success in nine test launches.

The 103-foot-tall rocket raced 5,000 miles from Cape Canaveral to the south Atlantic Ocean Wednesday on a flight described by one project official as "the best yet" for Titan 2.

Katanga Students Stone U. S. Area In Congo Protest

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—University students, shouting "Down with Kennedy!" and "Bash the consul's head in!" stormed into the grounds of the U.S. consulate today, ripped down the American flag and broke all the windows.

A small shack on the grounds was set afire and windows of Consul Jonathan Dean's parked car were broken by stones.

Dean and his staff watched the demonstration from a balcony but withdrew later to escape the rocks.

The students organized the demonstration after an announcement in New York that the United States will supply more military equipment to bolster the U.N. campaign to end Katanga's secession.

President Moise Tshombe's guards, called to the scene, dispersed the demonstrators. About 150 of the students, African and European, came back and broke through the police cordon again. They finally were scattered by a platoon of special police, but one of the demonstrators said, "There is not enough damage. We will be back."

The student attack came after anti-American blasts by Tshombe at a news conference at which he threatened again to "apply the scorched earth policy" in Katanga rather than give in to military pressure.

Lt. Gen. Louis Truman planned more talks at the United Nations today before leading a U.S. military mission to the Congo to check the needs of U.N. forces.

The Truman mission has been linked with reports, from Washington and President Kennedy's Nassau conference with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, that the United States is concerned over prospects of a new Soviet bid for influence in the Congo.

Truman told reporters Wednesday night, however, after meeting more than an hour with Secretary-General U. Thant, "my mission has nothing to do with that whatsoever."

He said the United States has "no plans that I know of" to send troops to the Congo and that his purpose is to see what useful military equipment "we can give to the Congo."

State Department officials said earlier the mission will assess the ability of the 18,000-man U.N. force to keep order.

Gen. Truman was to confer with Robert K. A. Gardiner, the chief of the U.N. Congo mission, and Ralph J. Bunche, U.N. undersec-

Snow Cover In Forecast

The respite from the snow and cold appears to be over.

There were intermittent snow flurries Thursday morning. By evening the snow was expected to be falling in earnest with an accumulation of two to four inches on the ground by Friday morning.

Temperatures, hovering in the mid 30s at noon, were forecast to drop into the low 20s during the night. High Friday will be in the 27-35 degree range.

It will probably be a while before Fayette Countians again experience anything like the 57-degree high of Wednesday.

retary who has had a big advisory role in Congo affairs.

His eight-man mission, made up of specialists in planning, logistics and equipment, expects to remain in the Congo five to seven days.

Sending of the mission coincides with stepped up pressure by Thant on President Moise Tshombe to end the secession of Katanga Province.

Coffee Break..

THE TIME for New Year's resolutions is at hand... And we heard our first ones Thursday...

They came from Fayette County's two biggest (physically speaking) law enforcement officers...

Each has resolved that beginning Jan. 1 he will lose 50 pounds...

Ordinarily we pay little attention to New Year's resolutions... They are something people make to break...

But in the case of these gentlemen, both possessors of a full measure of determination, we are certain that when they say those pounds are coming off, they'll come off...

IF ALL the little red robins haven't bobbed on down Florida way by now, chances are it's too late to escape the worst of winter's icy grip...

Nevertheless, at least one red-breasted harbinger of spring stayed around to cheer Fayette Countians through the cold months ahead... Mrs. Raymond Cline, Jeffersonville, reported he visited her backyard Thursday morning...

How he managed to escape the first big snow two weeks ago Thursday is anybody's guess...

SPEAKING of statistics, Chamber of Commerce Manager Bill Stoughton points out that the economic analyst who uses figures published in the state treasurer's 1962 annual report to measure economic activity in Fayette County is in for a rough time...

He will look on Page 37 of the report and find that the county's prepaid sales tax receipts during the fiscal year ending June 30 jumped 44.6 per cent, by far the largest gain of the only five counties reporting increases...

Yet, on Page 39 the economist will find that motor vehicle sales tax collections in the county were down 1.6 per cent, making Fayette County one of only 11 counties to report a decrease...

The explanation for the startling variance, of course, is that beginning Jan. 1 a major chain store operation began using Fayette County for reporting all its Ohio sales tax collections...

FAYETTE COUNTY continues to grow, and so do four of its six municipalities...

July 1, 1962 estimates prepared by the State Department of Industrial and Economic Development and released Wednesday show the following figures...

Washington C. H. 12,852, up from 12,388 in the 1960 federal census; Jeffersonville, 902, up from 897; Bloomington, 775, up from 719; and the Fayette County part of New Holland, 116, up from 111...

The estimate for Milledgeville is 221, down one from the official census, and Octa, 77, down 18...

Total population of the county was estimated at 25,265... This compared with 24,775 in the 1960 census...

It was emphasized that these are only estimates. The moment of truth will not come until the 1970 census...

During the 1950s the experts were estimating the smaller villages like Milledgeville and Octa were losing population in keeping with a rational trend...

However, in the 1960 census these and all other Fayette County municipalities actually gained...

Cattle Feeders Banquet Jan. 14

Plans For Next Year
Outlined By Board

The annual Fayette County Cattle Feeders Association banquet will be held at the Washington Country Club on Monday, Jan. 14, officers and directors of the association decided at a meeting held Wednesday evening in the Extension Service office.

Robert Hodson, vice president of the Hillsboro Bank and Savings Co., will be the principal speaker. Jim Warner, beef cattle specialist from Ohio State University, will briefly discuss the past, present and future of the beef cattle situation.

One of the outstanding features of the banquet is the standard rib beef roast, which is served family style.

Tickets to the banquet will be available soon from any of the officers, directors, local stockyards or Extension Service office. Following custom, the banquet will be for men only.

The officers and directors made plans for their 1963 activities, which include participation in the Ohio Cattle Feeders Association meeting Jan. 30-31; a cattle tour, probably in early March; participation in a live cattle beef carcass day at Ohio State University March 20; sponsorship of the annual 4-H beef clinic in June; promoting and assisting with the 4-H steer sale at the Fair; participation in the State Cattle Feeders Roundup in July or August; participation in the annual Ohio Cattle Feeders Tour, which this year will be to Oklahoma and Texas Panhandle, and continuation of the monthly dinner meetings with educational programs.

H. H. Pendleton, president, presided at the meeting with Barton Montgomery giving the secretary's and treasurer's reports.

Madison FB Council Has Dinner Meeting

Members of the Madison Township Farm Bureau Council, meeting for dinner in Anderson's Restaurant, tried to find the answers to two questions: "Are we concerned enough about our world neighbors?" and "Do we try enough to understand their problems?"

During the discussion led by Mrs. Dwight King, the group agreed that Americans are not always sufficiently concerned about the rest of the world and that they are not sufficiently interested in the problems of other to understand them.

Several thought understanding could be improved by contributing to such worldwide relief agencies as CARE and CROP.

About a month ago the Council contributed $5 to CARE and Mrs. Leland Dorn read a letter of appreciation the Council had received from CARE administrators in Poland.

It was pointed out that representatives being sent to foreign lands by the American Farm Bureau should strengthen international understanding. Mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hutchinson, who are now in Viet Nam setting up an educational program, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams, of Clinton County, sent to India to encourage the use of hybrid seeds.

The group also agreed that "we could be better neighbors by seeing more of the world around us."

Mrs. Glenna Hidy, chairman, presided at the meeting attended by Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dorn, Mrs. W. H. Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Hidy, Mrs. Marie Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight King and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wilson.

The next meeting will be at the Wilson home Jan. 15.

Cop's Uniform, Badge Missing

CINCINNATI (AP)—This isn't a call for "Car 54, where are you?" It's a call for "Badge 631, where are you—and where is the uniform that goes with you?"

Patrolman James Holland went to the L.B. Harrison club Wednesday to practice basketball. When he finished his uniform, including his badge, shoes, socks and belt, had been stolen from the locker. The thief didn't get Holland's gun because he had it with him.

Holland, clad only in sweatshirt and gym shorts, had to call a fellow officer to take him home. Police still don't know whether it was an actual theft or a practical joke, but the badge and the uniform are missing.

2 Michigan Ore Mines To Close In January

The announcement Wednesday said the mines affected are the Cliffs Shaft and the Mather. The latter is owned jointly with Bethlehem Steel Co.

Land Bank's Open House Draws Crowd

More than 300 men and women attended the open house at the new office building of the Federal Land Bank Association of Washington C. H. on E. Court St. Wednesday.

Richard Whiteside, the manager; Mrs. Mary Rhoads, the office assistant; and officers of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville, Ky., of which the bank here is a branch, greeted the visitors.

Bouquets of flowers brightened the lobby and managers of the office. They had been sent by individuals and business firms as tokens of good wishes.

W. O. Beatty, 44 East St., the only survivor of the 11 founders of the Fayette County National Farm Loan Association in 1921, was there to talk with visitors and take his first look at the new building.

The farm financing association he helped establish was the forerunner of the present Land Bank Association here.

Along with managers of several other associations in this Land Bank district at the open house were E. A. Embree, vice president and secretary of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville; R. E. French, Louisville, the Land Bank regional manager, and Dean Vincent, a representative of the underwriter of the credit life insurance program offered by the bank here.

Publishers' Proposal Is Studied By Union

CLEVELAND (AP)—Attention was focused today on a proposal from the publishers of the key union security issue that has stalled negotiations in the 21-day Newspaper Guild strike against Cleveland's two daily newspapers.

The proposal was not disclosed. Representatives of the newspapers—the Plain Dealer and the Press and News—and the Guild are to return to the bargaining table at 4:30 p.m. in an effort to settle the dispute.

Sabin Vaccine Is Given Nod

'Very Small Risk'
Is Seen For Adults

WASHINGTON (AP)—Americans are urged to use the Sabin oral vaccine against polio—but with a warning of a "very small risk" for adults.

The report came Wednesday from S. Surgeon General Luther L. Terry and his special advisory committee on the vaccine which for months has been pondering the question of hazard.

Committee experts estimated the chances at a million to one that the vaccine's live viruses might cause paralytic polio in persons of all ages. The odds, they said, were only slightly higher for adults, especially for those over 30.

Terry and the committee urged communities to go on with planned vaccination programs with the three types of Sabin living viruses, with special emphasis on vaccination of children and young adults.

"In the oral (Sabin) and Salk (injected) vaccines we have two established weapons against polio, and we can, I believe, look forward to the day when polio is finally eliminated in this country," Terry said in a statement.

"With a total of around 650 cases reported this year, compared to almost 58,000 a decade ago (when vaccines were not available), it is clear we are well on our way," he said.

On Sept. 15 and again on Oct. 2, the special panel on the Sabin vaccine reported the problem that some cases of polio appeared to stem from use of the vaccine, specifically from Type III viruses, one of the triumvirate of polio virus types.

In Wednesday's report, the panel said there were now 11 cases considered compatible—that is, 11 cases where the circumstances indicated the vaccine had caused some paralytic polio.

Of the 11 cases, eight were adults over 30 years old. There was no figure immediately available on the number of adults over 30 who received the vaccine. The report did say that 15 million persons of all ages had received the questionable Type III vaccine in non-epidemic areas in 1962. Most were children.

Trailer Variance Denied By Board

The City Zoning Board of Appeals Wednesday night denied an application by the Rev. Leo Butcher, as trustee for the Wesleyan Holiness Church, 715 Pearl St., for a variance to place a house-trailer on the lot behind the church. The board held that no hardship was involved.

In the other action at the meeting, the board extended for 30 days a one-year variance authorizing the Dadds Monument Co., 81 S. Main St., to display monuments on the premises contrary to the zoning ordinance.

The board adopted a resolution expressing its appreciation to City Manager David Foell for his "excellent assistance and interpretation of this board to function for the best interests of Washington C. H."

It expressed the board's wish for similar success in his new position as city manager of Oakwood.

Extortionist Gets Sentence

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Lancaster man charged with using the mails in an attempt to extort $2,000 from a bank president was sentenced today to five years in federal prison.

William Neal Bussard, 47, was sentenced by Judge Mell G. Underwood in U. S. District Court. Judge Underwood told Bussard: "Extortion is a very serious crime."

Bussard was arrested Oct. 18 by FBI agents and Fairfield County sheriff's deputies after William D. Akin, president of the Lancaster National Bank received a letter telling him to leave $2,000 in a cabinet of a shoe store in Lancaster. It warned that he, his wife and his family would be killed if he failed to do so.

Studies of the handwriting of the shoe store's employees and other police work led to Bussard's arrest.

HOW THE WEATHER LOOKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

A new cold air mass moved southward into Ohio from Canada Wednesday night, dropping temperatures into the low 20s in the northern counties.

Early today light rain was falling near the Ohio River and skies were cloudy over the rest of the state.

Northeasterly winds will bring steady or falling temperatures today, and snow flurries are expected in the northern counties and rain changing to snow in the central and south.

Light precipitation may continue tonight but should end early Friday except near Lake Erie.

Overnight low temperatures by Friday morning will be in the teens north and the 20s elsewhere.

Man Goes On Rampage, Kills Girl, 13

NOVI, Mich. (AP)—A curly-haired young man with a small goatee, capped a night of beer drinking by invading a neighbor's home today, terrorizing the family and beating a 13-year-old daughter to death with a claw hammer.

He also kidnaped the mother, whom he forced to disrobe, and drove her several miles to Dearborn where he set her free before walking into Dearborn police headquarters with the hammer, saying: "I just killed two people."

Only one was dead—Shirley Husted, daughter of Wesley Husted, 40. Both the father and the mother, Rita, 33, had been beaten.

James G. Gostlin, 20, of Garden City, Mich., admitted in a statement, authorities said, that he had gone on the rampage after a night of drinking.

Gostlin is married but is separated from his wife, Betty, 17. The couple has a baby son.

Ohio Wheat Acreage Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department's winter wheat crop report shows Ohio with 1,486,000 acres seeded for 1963 harvest, expected to produce 44,580,000 bushels. The acreage is up 13 per cent from last year.

Auto Stocks Rocket To New Highs

NEW YORK (AP)—With General Motors and Chrysler touching new highs, the stock market moved turbulently to a moderate gain on average early this afternoon.

Gains of most key stocks were fractional, some going to about a point.

Yearend cross currents were affecting the market earlier than usual, said brokers, because of the big plunge of last spring.

The ticker tape ran late repeatedly and first-hour volume was the heaviest this week, 1.34 million shares.

Gains by the motors were narrow, but the leading stocks in the group have advanced solidly in recent weeks. Steels were no better than mixed. Oils continued a string of gains as they displaced in investment favor.

Aerospace issues also went to the upside, some of the stocks making gains exceeding a point. The backdrop of business and economic news remained fairly reassuring.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .6 at 241.4 with industrials up 1.2, rails up .1, and utilities up .2.

GM, the nation's biggest manufacturer, was the talk of the street as it improved Wednesday's historic high of 59 1/2, nudging ahead to 59 3/4. Its 284 million shares of outstanding common represents the largest capitalization of any on the market, and for this reason it moves more slowly in either direction than more thinly-distributed stocks, which respond more readily to buying and selling.

Chrysler touched a new 1962 high of 75 3/4 as it gained fractionally.

Giving Full Aid

partment, acknowledged Wednesday night that it and the Internal Revenue Service made staff members available to advise lawyers working with Donovan on tax questions and similar matters.

"We have been expediting rulings and assisting it in an advisory way, but it is entirely a committee operation," he said.

Guthman was asked for comment after Dr. Arnold Beckman, president of Beckman Instrument Co. of Fullerton, Calif., said a Washington attorney called him from the Justice Department and asked for $60,000 worth of equipment.

Beckman called the exchange "Castro blackmail—not in keeping with the dignity of the United States."

Guthman said private lawyers working on the exchange had used Justice Department phones, but that the committee would pay for the calls.

Beckman said some of the requested instruments have been considered of strategic importance and shouldn't be sent to a Communist country. Guthman commented that any goods that might be sent to Cuba would be cleared first by the Commerce Department.

Drug industry sources said in New York initial contacts on the exchange were made with individual companies in October by Donovan.

Lincoln White, press officer of the State Department, declined comment Monday when asked if the government itself was donating money or food or drugs to the negotiating committee.

The Internal Revenue Service ruled Wednesday night that any person or any firm that donates medicine or food in the prisoner exchange may list the value as a charity tax deduction.

Recording Tycoon's Life 'Crazy'

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Some 12,000 to 14,000 new long-playing phonograph recordings are turned out each year in America.

"But only about 500 make any real money," said Enoch Light, the musical millionaire.

Light is managing director of one of 4,000 firms fighting in an overcrowded field for the privilege of reaching the American ear—and the American pocket-book.

A placid-looking, pipe-smoking man of middle age, Light has led a spectacular roller-coaster career in a business in which the unofficial slogan is: "Hold on to your hat at all times."

At 19 he left college to become the pit conductor for a Broadway show in 1926.

By 1940 he had become known as the "Ambassador of Jazz" in Europe, and he was leader of one of the big bands.

Then he was involved in an automobile accident that laid him up for a year and a half.

"When I finally recovered I found that the parade had passed me by. The heyday of the big bands was drawing to a close, and I realized I had to try something new."

Enoch entered the recording field and learned the business from the ground up.

There followed 10 lean, arduous years, then in 1954 Light founded his own firm, and in 1959 sold it for more than $2 million to ABC-Paramount, which retained him as directing head.

"It's all pretty crazy, isn't it?" he asked quietly, puffing on his pipe.

After my accident came the desperate days—week after week when I earned nothing. From the time I was 35 until I was 44 I was in danger of starving.

"Then, in another five years or so, I was a millionaire. It is crazy!"

"But once you go through a bad period in life you never get over the fear. Today I still can't bear to waste money or food."

Light now feels his years of ordeal were well worth all the personal hardship he endured.

"They taught me to work hard and to respect work," he said.

"Success isn't a matter of being cute or clever. It's a matter of worry, integrity, responsibility and doing your very best. It sounds corny, but it's true."

"The only secret lies in believing in what you are trying to do, and then putting more time and effort into doing it than the other fellow does."

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—This was not one of the splendid years. Neither optimists nor pessimists had much to crow about. It had some horrible moments, some flashing ones.

It was a year of incredible stupidity — when the Russians thought they could get away with putting missiles in Cuba.

It was a year of at least one fierce and sturdy decision—when President Kennedy forced the Russians to remove the missiles.

It was a savage and bloody year—war in Viet Nam, the Red Chinese invasion of India, assassinations in Algeria.

It was a year racism wore one of its ugliest faces—when James H. Meredith, a Negro, got into all-white University of Mississippi only after bloody rioting, two men's deaths and use of the full force of government.

It was a year of few victories—there were none in Viet Nam, Berlin, the Congo, all major trouble spots for years.

It was, like others, a year of empty jaw-jaw — East and West did nuclear testing while fruitlessly talking disarmament and a ban on testing.

It was even a dull political year — after the November elections the number of Democrats and Republicans in office remained pretty much the same.

It was a year of at least one political disaster—defeated Richard M. Nixon apparently passed into political oblivion.

It was a year of a few brilliant moments—when astronauts, American and Russian, sailed the sky but Russia, with its space twins, stayed ahead.

But it was also a year of unforgettable clash—when Kennedy forced the steel industry to drop its price increase.

It was a year the stock market frightened the nation again — in May a one-day drop was the worst since 1929. Later the market straightened out.

It was the year when the summit slid into the valley—Premier Khrushchev talked it up, but this week Kennedy saw no use in a summit meeting soon.

It was also a year of one great possibility—that Russia, after its horrifying Cuban experience, may be easier to live with. Kennedy doesn't predict it.

Out of Cuba the Russians learned, at least, the United States can be tough to the point of war. This may make them more careful. It doesn't mean it changed them. They may be far tougher in a new crisis closer to home.

The United States couldn't claim much progress in saving, with men and supplies, Viet Nam from the Communists. But the Communists couldn't claim they had made much progress trying to gobble it up.

The Red Chinese invasion of India is still a mystery since they pulled back. It may have been a costly blunder. It would be if it drove India into the Western camp. That hasn't happened yet.

As for the Congo—the trouble that seemed to have quieted down by last year's end is bubbling up at this year's end. This can be real nasty. Russia let the heat on Berlin cool down in 1962. It's still fairly cool.

It's now 17 years since World War II. Russia and the West seem no nearer agreement on disarmament than they did then. As for a ban on nuclear testing — the two sides are still waltzing like a couple of flatfoots.

Both Wife And Husband Wind Up In Hospital

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Robert H. Brodie got the proverbial middle-of-the-night awakening by his wife. Time to go to the hospital, she told him.

They made it but both were taken into the hospital in wheel chairs. Mrs. Brodie had a 7½ pound boy.

The proud father passed out cigars from his bed in another room on the same floor. He had made his first parachute jump the day before and discovered his ankle was broken when he tried to get out of bed.

McKinley, Hard Rated Tennis Stars

NEW YORK (AP)—Chuck McKinley and Darlene Hard top the nation's tennis players in the 1962 ratings of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association. McKinley heads the men's list for the first time while Miss Hard was ranked first among the women for the third straight year.

McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., 21-year-old mainstay of the American Davis Cup team, replaced the slumping Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., as the No. 1 player in the rankings announced Tuesday. Reed, who had a bad year, was dropped to sixth.

McKinley, ranked second a year ago, was at his best in the U.S. Championships at Forest Hills where he put up a tremendous effort before losing to Australia's Roy Emerson in the semifinals.

Miss Hard of Long Beach, Calif., was beaten in the finals of the national championships by Margaret Smith, the tall Australian star.

The rankings were recommended by the men's and women's committees but must be approved at the USLTA's annual meeting at

Women In Cuba Playing Bigger Role

EDITOR'S NOTE — The writer of this article was an Associated Press correspondent in Havana for 29 months and was jailed there for three weeks under the Castro regime. He now is an AP roving correspondent in Latin America, and has been on special assignment in Key West.

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Under Castro automation, goes a Cuban witticism, the laboring man has been replaced—by women.

Cuban radio and television programs monitored here tend to accentuate that observation. Day in and out, the Cuban stations monotonously drone out the revolutionary achievements of "our women's brigades" and "our exemplary Cuban woman" toiling away "voluntarily" in coffee, cotton and sugar fields.

Starting next year some women will be carrying credentials as crew members on Cuban merchant ships.

Men work, of course, and they get their share of accolades. But to hear Havana radio tell it, Cuban workers spend large portions of their time attending meetings to "discuss production goals" or study "cultural draft projects."

The radio-television broadcasts, easily seen and heard here, 93 miles from Havana, provide an excellent electronic peephole for a limited look at Cuba.

What is a radio-television view of Cuba like these days?

To one who had a Havana ring-side seat on Castro and the post-revolution for 29 months, an immediate reaction is:

"Where is Fidel?"

Two years ago, it would have been rank heresy, if not counter-revolutionary, to leave Castro out of the picture if he were anywhere near a television program.

But that was done recently when President Osvaldo Dorticos spoke at a funeral service. Viewers got only the briefest look at Castro's back as he rushed away after the ceremony with only a brisk wave to Dorticos.

Two years ago, such an omission would have started speculation on Castro's health or his position in the hierarchy.

There are other signs the original revolutionaries are being edged from the spotlight by the new Marxist-Leninist set. There were no special radio or television programs to mark the anniversary of Castro's Dec. 2, 1956, invasion that led eventually to the overthrow of dictator Fulgencio Batista. Commentators handled the event in routine fashion, contrary to the hoopla of other years.

Anti-Americanism remains the big hard-sell item on both radio and television. Anti-Castro Cuban raiders are always identified as "brutal CIA agents." Cubans felled by counter-revolutionaries were victims of "Yankee imperialist agents."

The way it comes over radio and television now, the revolutionary litany has a hollow mechanical ring; it lacks the old sound and fury of deep-down conviction.

Says a Cuban exile: "They're tired and, besides that, they've used up the entire dictionary of scurrilous abuse. There's really nothing left to say."

A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you and your family!

In extending best wishes for happiness during Christmas and the New Year, may we take this opportunity to urge you to join with us in a "Drive for a safe Holiday!" If each of us will observe the following holiday safe driving tips and bring them to the attention of members of the family and motoring friends, we will help assure a happier and safer season for all.

BE SURE YOUR CAR IS SAFE Drive with good tires... properly adjusted brakes... lights and turn signals working... windshield wipers and defrosters functioning properly.

USE SEAT BELTS

Whenever and wherever you drive. Seat belts are "Circles of Safety" for you and your family.

PLAN A SAFE DRIVE

Allow plenty of time for your holiday travel. On long trips make frequent stops. Arrive relaxed.

BE ALERT TO HOLIDAY HAZARDS

Drive in keeping with road, weather and traffic conditions. Remember, most holiday accidents involve drinking and speed too fast for conditions.

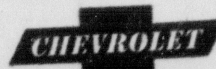

WATCH OUT FOR OTHERS

Make allowances for unpredictable driver and pedestrian actions. Give yourself and others an extra margin of safety.

USE COURTESY ABUNDENTLY Resolve to "Make Courtesy Your Code of the Road." It pays! Full enjoyment of the Holiday Season is something to which all of us look forward. With this enjoyment, however, -- and we know you agree -- goes individual responsibility to protect your family, yourself and your community. Let's all DRIVE for a Safe Holiday!

Cordially yours,

Experts Seek To Curtail Emotion Trouble At Start

EDITOR'S NOTE — Doctors, clergymen, teachers and community workers are combining forces today to help those who suffer mental affliction and emotional distress. It's a far cry from former days when the mental patient was shunned as a social outcast. Here, in the fourth of five special articles, is the story of this joint attempt to prevent emotional trouble before it starts.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Along the highways to the Menninger Foundation are coming clergymen, businessmen, doctors, lawyers, teachers, community leaders.

They share a common goal — the prevention of mental illness with its incalculable human suffering.

"The exciting thing is to help people before they become ill," says Dr. William Menninger, a big, relaxed man who with his brother, Karl, is among the pioneers in psychiatric care who have helped change state mental hospitals from keepers of the ill to effective treatment centers.

Mental illness begins or is aggravated in the home, the school, on the job, in many situations. Life can begin going sour in hundreds of ways—for the woman feeling useless after her children leave home, the man failing of his dreams, the child feeling inadequate to parental expectations and demands.

There are not enough psychiatrists and psychologists for troubled persons to turn to. Many physicians give such aid, and half the people going to family doctors do so because of symptoms arising from psychological causes. Psychiatric education of the general physician is a major program of the American Psychiatric Association.

Community leaders could become a small army of men and women giving counsel to help solve emotional problems.

Some already know intuitively how to advise the emotionally troubled, says Dr. Joseph Satten, director of the Menninger Foundation's social psychiatry department, stressing research on prevention.

Others can be given an understanding of some scientific principles, the ABC with which to recognize problems, to counsel people, to prevent situations from becoming worse, to suggest helpful courses of action in a useful way.

What happens to people at work can powerfully influence mental health, explains Dr. Harry Levinson. So, since 1956, top business executives have been coming to the foundation for special week-long seminars to "learn what makes people tick."

Why does a top salesman fail as a desk-bound executive? Why do seemingly successful men turn to alcoholism, or threaten suicide? What makes employees angry or frustrated?

By one estimate, 80 to 90 per cent of emotional problems seen on the job among employees arise in their home life.

The objective is to teach business leaders how to listen, to know how humans feel, Dr. Levinson adds. And, since top men have emotions also, how to maintain their own balance.

One survey finds that 42 per cent of people turn first to their ministers or pastors when emotional troubles begin to take a toll. Appropriate training for future clergymen is sponsored by the National Institute of Mental Health at Loyola University in Chicago, Yeshiva University in New York, and at Harvard Divinity School.

Thousands of school children run into serious emotional problems. The nervous, tyrannical, and lackadaisical child can be reflecting emotional and family problems.

Dr. Edward Greenwood heads a program in which Topeka schools, teachers, psychiatrists and psychologists join hands in counseling to detect troubles, find causes and remedies. Invariably this involves voluntary consultations with parents, who may unwittingly be triggering the child's reactions.

"Being a good parent is one of the most difficult tasks of all," Dr. Greenwood remarks sympa-thetically. This teamwork approach for children reaches into elementary and junior high schools. Growing old brings on other stresses, and a new retirement —and—geriatrics clinic under Dr. Prescott Thompson now is treating a small number of men and women in a study of their special problems. In other steps, suicide prevention centers (where the distraught can call for help), improved training of more marriage counselors, and mental health courses in high schools and colleges, are being sponsored by the NIMH and National Association for Mental Health.

Much "pumpkin" pie is really made with squash. Hard-shelled winter squash has been an important American food since Indian days.

County School Consolidation Is Proposed

CHILLICOTHE — A "master plan," which envisions consolidation of all schools in Ross County, including four high schools, into one district under one administration has been submitted to the Ross County Board of Education.

The plan was drawn up by School Survey Service, Inc., Columbus, headed by Dr. W. R. Flesher. It was a part of a preliminary report by Dr. Flesher and his six-member staff. The final report, with modifications and refinement, is to be made in January, or March at the latest.

Dr. Flesher emphasized that it is the county board's prerogative to accept or reject the report.

Chillicothe City School District and Frankfort Exempted Village District were not included in the survey.

The suggested "master plan" would utilize all present buildings.

The plan would eliminate the many local boards, resulting, it is claimed, in better supervision, central purchasing of supplies, better distribution of teachers, a refinement in school bus operation and an equalization of taxation for school purposes over the county. It would also reduce the work of the county auditor by dealing with one taxing district, instead of the present eight.

IF THE REPORT is accepted and followed, Dr. Flesher said many other determinations would be necessary, such as deciding attendance districts to set up proper and efficient high school centers.

"The point we are trying to make is that small districts statewide are on their way out, as larger districts make for more efficient operation and high standards," Dr. Flesher stated. "While the process is painful, there gradually develops a pride that children are receiving a proper education. In this regard, initial cost reductions are superceded usually by a public desire to provide more and better educational opportunities at greater expense, of course."

The electric fire alarm system was invented by William F. Channing and Moses Farmer in 1857.

Tax On Trailers Due 'n January

Fayette County Auditor Harry Allen Thursday issued a reminder to owners of house trailers that 1963 taxes on these vehicles may be paid beginning Jan. 2.

The deadline is Jan. 31. Taxes on 105 trailers owned in this county in 1962 brought in a total of $1,781.51.

All house trailer owners in this county subject to the tax must register with the county auditor's office.

Operators of trailer parks, or owners of property used for such purposes, when no operator is employed are required by law to keep a register of all trailers using the park or property.

If a trailer acquires a site in Ohio from Jan. 1 to June 30, owners may pay a minimum of one-half the tax 30 days after the site is acquired and the other half by Oct. 1. Tax payments for trailers acquiring sites from July 1 to Dec.

are due 30 days after the site is acquired.

Trailer certificates must be removed from trailers transferring ownership. Should the original owner of the trailer apply to register another trailer, he may also apply for a transfer of his original certificate at a fee of $1.35.

BY MRS. JAMES DOYLE

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Kathy Lynn Bowsher celebrated her sixth birthday Sunday afternoon with a party at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minshall, and her cousins, Robert and Ronette.

The guests enjoyed a variety of children's games.

Mrs. Minshall was assisted by Mrs. Mary Ellen Bowsher, Mrs. Sherman Thacker and Mrs. Harold Morrow in the serving of refreshments of cake and ice cream, soft drinks and coffee. Favors of bubbles and candy were given to Caroline Cross, Kim Jacobs, Ed, Mike, Diane, Don and David Morrow, Russell and Brenda Patterson, Kenneth Thacker, Virginia Thacker. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Doan and John Bowsher.

LIONESS CLUB

Mrs. Wendell Tarbill entertained the Lioness Club at her home Dec. 10.

A covered dish supper opened the evening's entertainment, with guests seated at tables covered with green cloths, centered with lighted candles surrounded by holly. Recorded Christmas music provided a pleasant atmosphere for the dinner hour.

A gift exchange and visiting completed the evening of fun. Those present were Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. Robert Bush, Mrs. William Fricke, Mrs. Joe Goolley, Mrs. Paul Hughes, Mrs. Straud Knisley, Mrs. Everett Landman, Mrs. Bob Lewis, Mrs. Willard Lininger, Mrs. Harry Morris, Mrs. Forrest Morris, Mrs. Delbert Remy, Mrs. Dwight Shaeffer, Mrs. Leslie Tarbill and Mrs. Harold Wright.

GOLDEN RULE CLASS

Twenty-four members and one guest of the Golden Rule Sunday School Class enjoyed the cozy warmth and hospitality at the home of Mrs. James Doyle Dec. 12 for their Christmas party. The home was radiant throughout with suggestions of the Christmas season.

Hostesses were the 1962 officers: Mrs. Nancy Davis, president; Mrs. James Shipley, vice president; Mrs. Iola Gifford, secretary; Mrs. Bernita Manuel, treasurer.

The evening got under way with the serving of a covered dish supper buffet style. The guests ate at tables arranged throughout the home which were covered with Christmas cloths and centered with lighted candles. The invocation was given by Mrs. Orlo Freshley.

Mrs. Ed Davis conducted a short business meeting.

Mrs. Howard Somers and Mrs. Allen Tootle will be first and second assistants to Mrs. Ed Haggard, the regular class teacher.

Mrs. Art Newell, class president for 1963, presented the new calendars, and named Mrs. Davis as chairman of the nursery for the new year.

Following a report from Mrs. Haggard, the class will buy clothing for a family in need in time for Christmas giving.

Mrs. Dean Tarbill led the group in the singing of Christmas carols, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Doyle. Mrs. Betty Fell presented a story, "If Christ Had Not Come". Mrs. Glenn Robinson, closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Haggard received a gift from the class, followed by an exchange of gifts beneath a lighted tree.

Mrs. Doyle served punch and salted wafers during the social hour at which time visiting and singing of Christmas songs were enjoyed by Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Gifford, Mrs. Manuel, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Tom Conrad, Mrs. Cliff Hughes, Mrs. Haggard, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Betty Fell, Mrs. Willard Lininger, Mrs. Dean Tarbill, Mrs. Wendell Kirk, Mrs. Edna Boyd, Mrs. Esther Zellars, Mrs. Allen Tootle, Mrs. Howard Garrison, Mrs. Howard Somers, Mrs. Orlo Freshley, Mrs. Joe Satchell, Mrs. Robert Satchell, Mrs. Woodrow Workman and the invited guest, Mrs. Glenn Robinson, Chillicothe.

GOOD CHEER CIRCLE

A covered dish dinner at the noon hour and an exchange of gifts were the highlights of the Christmas party held by the Good Cheer Circle of the Methodist Church Dec. 12 in the church social rooms. The Rev. and Mrs. Orlo Freshley were included as guests for the holiday meeting.

Mrs. Frances McQuay gave the devotion. Mrs. McQuay also read "The Right To Celebrate Christmas." She closed with the group singing "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem."

Mrs. Mabel Dick, program chairman, discussed the origin of the Christmas carol, holly mistletoe, peeling of church bells, St. Nicholas, how Santa Claus, Ind., got its name and the sending of Christmas cards. Mrs. Joe Owens read a humorous letter composed in 1930 by the late Mrs. Inez Andrews. This letter was written to Santa Claus expressing the wishes of all the class members and was signed with the class member's name, Mrs. Lenora Wright. Two piano duets by Mrs. Mabel Dick and Mrs. Mabel Louis closed the program.

In past years the class has purchased a gift for their teacher, Miss Mary Withgott. At her request, they purchased collection plates for the church and these were presented to her. A cash donation is being sent to the Worthington Children's Home.

Mrs. Mabel Fannin presided at the business meeting which she opened by reading a letter from the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Riel, missionaries in India.

A unanimous decision was made to hold all future December meetings at the noon hour and feature a covered dish luncheon and gift exchange.

Mr. Freshley brought to the members attention the need of blankets for the people of Algeria. Anyone wishing to contribute is asked to bring a donation to the church Sunday.

The members lingered over the exchange of gifts and visiting. The kitchen committee was composed of Mrs. Mabel Fannin, Mrs. Martha Hosler, Mrs. Agnes Yeoman, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly and Mrs. Gertrude Wallace.

Sen. Lausche

Recalls Feeling For Anthem

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, describes his World War I emotions as proof the national anthem can be inspirational even if one does not join in singing it.

Lausche has made public a letter he wrote to Marcia Speer of Berea, Ohio, whose high school class had discussed whether spectators should join in singing when the Star Spangled Banner is played at school athletic games and other public affairs.

"There is no established rule or practice on what the audience participation should be," the senator wrote.

He added: "My deepest inspiration sparked by the strains of the national anthem was experienced while I was a soldier in World War I."

"Shortly after my induction in the service while assigned to duty at Camp Gordon, Ga., in the evening when the flag was lowered from the mast and the regimental band played the national anthem, I was seized with a rich, vibrating reaction provoking within me the tenderest thoughts about my country."

"At times the silence, except for the strains of the Star Spangled Banner, was so deadly that the dogs in the camp began to whine. The flag was lowered. To the mind of the soldiers came the thought that it was lowered for the night but they knew that it would be flown on high again in the morning."

"The vision came to them of their brethren who on the battlefield were giving of themselves for the defense of our country."

Eleanor Powell, Now 50, Off On New Dancing Career

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"It's not many performers who get a chance for the second time around. That's why I'm having the time of my life."

This was Eleanor Powell at 50 sitting on top of a whole new career. The night after Christmas she will make her television dancing debut with Perry Como. She is drawing top salaries in Las Vegas and other show spots. And she is planning a concert tour that will take her through the United States and Europe.

Not bad for a star who didn't dance for 14 years.

"It's the greatest feeling in the world to be able to come back and find an audience still waiting," she said. "I thought they would have forgotten by now."

"But they haven't. They seem to have an emotional response to what I have done. When I finish my act and go around the tables shaking hands, many of them are crying. It's the same way with other performers who came back stage to see me. Some of them are so emotional they can't speak. "They seem to be glad that I made it back."

The Eleanor Powell story would indicate that stars never fade. Hailed as the greatest female tap dancer, she was a hit on Broadway and then starred in a string of glittering MGM musicals such as "Born to Dance," "Rosalie," "Honolulu," "Lady Be Good" and the "Broadway Melodies of 1936-38-40."

After the birth of their son, Peter, she worked only once — in 1947 to raise $30,000 for down payment on a house she and her husband Glenn Ford, wanted to buy. She played six weeks at the London Palladium and in Scotland, then quit entirely.

Then two years ago her marriage broke up.

"It was Christmas time and I was pretty shaken up," she said. "Peter suggested that we get out of town for Christmas. He thought we might go up to Las Vegas." They saw every show in town. At each show the stars introduced

Eleanor from the audience as one of the show business greats Pearl Bailey got her up onstage for a few taps. Later she told Peter that it was his duty to see that his mother returned to performing.

Mr. Shnoo's Zoo

BY LUCRECE BEALE

CHAPTER 16 THE QUEEN ARRIVES

Molly was stuck in the hole like a stopper in a bottle and not all the water in the pipe could shove her out again until she was good and ready to leave.

Santa and Mr. Shnoo put down their paddles and looked around at the zoo! The water was going down but it would be a long time before it had all run off and the animals calmed down and their cages cleaned up.

Mr. Shnoo hailed an attendant who was drifting by on a raft made of a broken door.

"Go call the city water works!" he shouted.

The attendant did as he was told. The water men turned off the water at the main pipe and rushed to the zoo. Fortunately they brought boats with them. Otherwise they would have had to swim once they got inside the zoo gates.

When Molly had unplugged the pipe the men looked at the hole and exclaimed in surprise.

"This pipe didn't break by itself. Someone has busted it open with an axe!" The men pointed out the marks on the pipe that proved this was so.

"Yes," said Santa. "Someone did it and I know who."

"WHO?" said Mr. Shnoo.

"The same one who gave a fire-cracker to Honeybun and broke a window in the bird house and staked Henrietta to the wrong wall and set fire to the monkey house."

"But who?" demanded Mr. Shnoo.

"Crookshank," said Santa.

"Impossible!"

"Crookshank," repeated Santa.

"He has schemed and worked to prevent your getting an award from the Queen. Since you fixed up so fine a zoo he wants it back and he's determined you shall not be able to pay him off today. And he's not done yet. Since the flood has been stopped he will think of something else. Wait and see."

"Oh, dear," moaned Mr. Shnoo in despair. "What shall I do?"

"Face him with the charge at once," advised Santa. "I think you have not a moment to lose."

"But I must clean up the zoo! Everything is turned about and heaven knows what the Queen will think!"

"Do that later," said Santa.

"Crookshank comes first!"

"I suppose you're right," said Mr. Shnoo.

He borrowed a plank from one

"I wish to sponsor a well cared for zoo," said the Queen.

of the water men and he sat on one end and Santa sat on the other end and off they paddled to hunt for Crookshank.

They had gone only a few yards when they heard from far off a hullabaloo of automobile horns honking and bells ringing. The din came closer and closer until it stopped at the gate of the zoo and there came a great fanfare of trumpets and the rolling tattoo of drums.

"Good heavens!" cried Mr. Shnoo. "It's the Queen!"

He paddled furiously until the water was too shallow to hold the plank. Then he and Santa jumped off and rushed to the gates of the zoo. There sat the Queen, all regal and stiff, in a fine open carriage surrounded by guards dressed in purple and ermine.

"Your Highness," said Mr. Shnoo, bending low. "Welcome to Shnoo's Zoo."

The Queen gazed at him in astonishment. His clothes were sopping and his face was covered with dirt. Behind him stood Santa and the two of them together looked like mud pies set out to dry.

The Queen stepped down from the carriage, wincing a little as her heel sank into mud.

"Mr. Shnoo?" she said uncertainly.

"Mr. Shnoo bowed again. "The same," he muttered unhappily.

"As you know," said the Queen, "I wish to sponsor a happy and well cared for zoo. I also wish to award the owner 1,000 pieces of gold. I have visited all the zoos in the land. I have saved your zoo for last because I have heard such wonderful reports about how beautifully you keep it and how tenderly you treat the animals."

"I must say," she added looking about her. "It seems rather muddy and unkempt out here but I know inside the gates it will be different."

"Eh — yes, Your Majesty — eh — very different!" stammered Mr. Shnoo miserably and bowing low he led her into the zoo.

An Alarming Mistake

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — When fire engines answered an alarm in downtown Tucson, Arizona Daily Star staffers Ted Craig and Charles Burkhardt offered a quick explanation for the false call.

They had seen a young woman, letters in hand, reach up and pull the alarm, thinking that would allow her to deposit the letters in what she thought was an airmail box.

Cuban Policy Hikes World Opinion Of U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Back from a round-the-world trip, Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., said today the United States gained tremendously in world opinion as a result of the Cuban crisis.

Mansfield, the Senate majority leader, returned Tuesday from a six-week global trip made at the request of President Kennedy. With him were Sens. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., and J. Caleb Boggs, R-Del., and former Sen. Benjamin A. Smith II, D-Mass.

The group, which left the United States Nov. 7, was by coincidence, in several trouble spots at times of tension—Egypt during the Yemen revolt, India during the China-India border conflict, and North Borneo during the uprising there.

"The reaction in all the countries we visited to the action taken by President Kennedy during the Cuban crisis was excellent," Mansfield said in an interview.

"The stature of the United States has increased tremendously. The world was fully awakened to the dangers and possibilities of nuclear war. The reaction was one of sound and solid support for the policy of the United States."

People . . . Places . . . And Things

Round About Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

As the glorious Christmas Day approaches each year, I have noticed the increased friendliness of the rank and file of people as they hurry about their activities in celebrating the birth of the Christ Child.

There are more smiles and friendly greetings at Christmas time than any other time of the year, and all because of the wonderful spirit which comes with the advent of the time when "God placed a baby on the doorstep of the world".

Down through the ages there has been one sentence which rings like a bell, not only at Christmas time but always — "it is more blessed to give than receive." And this, in part, is responsible for the great joy which comes in celebrating the anniversary.

I know a man who, although not blessed with a superabundance of this world's goods, makes it a point to give gifts and perform acts of kindness throughout the entire year as well as on special occasions. He lives in Highland County.

He is held in high esteem by all who know him, and so he will know this article refers to him, will state that as an example during the last Thanksgiving time he bought and gave a dozen turkeys to neighbors and other friends.

Somehow this man is always happy, and it is easy to tell why. "Put Christ in Christmas," we have heard in sermons and Christmas stories for many years, and in addition to putting Christ in Christmas, real followers of Christ place Him in their every day living by exemplifying the great fact that "God is Love."

Those who go out of their way to help brighten Christmas for others are the ones who reap the rich reward for their kindness and generosity — in knowing they have done something to please the One whose birthday anniversary they are celebrating.

WELL DECORATED

We were in Circleville one night recently and found the town presenting a real Christmas aspect with long strands of colored lights, zig-zagging across the street, with garlands of greenery, scintillating metal ornaments and strands of lights centering over the main intersection.

The decorations reminded me of the first time strands of colored lights and greenery were used in decorating the streets here a quarter of a century ago. This method of adding to the Christmas spirit attracted widespread attention generally and people from many adjacent cities came here to see and admire the holiday decorations.

With the 35-mile-an-hour time speed limit in effect on all highways, the number of traffic fatalities showed a pronounced drop.

Patrick Massie, 75, Milledgeville, died.

A heavy snowfall occurred over this part of Ohio and on Dec. 21 the mercury dropped to 10 below zero.

A large timber wolf, from Canada, passed through Fayette County into the hills of southern Ohio, where it was being sought.

Half of the corn crop in the county had been husked.

Hog receipts were a million under expected sales in November, packers reported.

Fires decreased after firemen started making inspections to eliminate hazards in the city.

A victory sing was held at the high school auditorium.

When a truck load of poultry overturned on Rt. 70 two miles north of Greenfield, hundreds of fowls escaped. They huddled together in the snow until recaptured.

A survey showed 286 combines and 144 corn pickers in Fayette County.

Unpredictable Teams Faced By Lion Cagers In 2 Weekend Games

Coach John Powell's WHS Lion basketball team, still hopeful of making an even record, will face this weekend a task this week-end when it clashes with two of the South Central Ohio League's most unpredictable cage squads.

The Lions, mired in a three-game losing streak, will carry a 1-2 SCO record and a 1-3 overall slate into this weekend's tilts with SCO opponents. They host Greenfield's Tigers Friday night in the WHS gymnasium and go to Wilmington Saturday night to battle the Hurricanes. Both games will follow Reserve tilts.

Upset victories over Greenfield and Wilmington not only would put cheer into the holidays for the Lions but also would raise hopes for a good showing in the Raidier Holiday Tournament next Thursday and Friday in Waverly. Drawings for the four-team tourney will be announced next Monday.

The Lions, tied with Franklin Heights for seventh place in the SCO, were obviously shaken following last weekend's defeats by Circleville and Teays Valley, especially the heart-breaker at Circleville.

Greenfield, knotted with the other schools for third place in the loop with a 1-1 record, and defending champion Wilmington, tied for first with Hillsboro (both 2-1), have been hot and cold so far this season but both will be favored to trip the youthful Lions this weekend. The Tigers are 1-2 overall and the Hurricanes are 3-2 in all games.

GREENFIELD'S only victory this season was a memorable one,

Lakers Show Depth To Trip Hawks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Coach Freddie Schaus wasn't exactly anxious to prove it, but he inadvertently was able to let the National Basketball Association know that his Los Angeles Lakers have the depth that champions are made of.

Schaus' ace backcourt man, Jerry West, was injured and unable to play, and big Rudy LaRusso was hampered by a sore ankle for Wednesday night's game against the St. Louis Hawks.

So . . . Dick Barnett moved into West's spot and scored 27 points. Jim Krebs started in place of LaRusso and chipped in 18. And with Elgin Baylor firing in 37 and Frank Selvy 18, the Lakers romped to a 135-106 victory—their sixth in a row and one that stretched their Western Division lead to 4½ games over the second-place Hawks.

In other NBA action, Arlen Bockhorn scored early and Oscar Robertson scored late and the Cincinnati Royals whipped Syracuse 129-120; and Detroit blew a 10-point lead, then rallied to edge Chicago 115-113.

Georgia Tech Shows Power

Southeast Conference Faces Cage Threat

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Comes new Georgia Tech, a ramblin' toward a national ranking and a threatenin' to pose some problems for Southeastern Conference basketball teams.

Coach John Hyder's Engineers, generally picked among the also-rans in the pre-season predictions, now have won five straight and are making noises which are being heard with some apprehension in the SEC.

One of the louder noises was an 84-71 triumph Wednesday night over a good North Carolina State team which had lost only one game.

In other major action, fourth-ranked Chicago Loyola continued its rampage with a 106-94 win over Indiana, Xavier of Ohio upset St. Bonaventure 86-77, Wake Forest subdued Maryland 85-74, Princeton won its sixth without loss in an 84-69 rout of Rutgers and fifth ranked Mississippi State crushed Christian Brothers 106-71 for its fifth victory against a single loss.

Georgia Tech won only four conference games en route to a 10-16 record last season, and wasn't generally regarded as a major threat to such powerhouses as Mississippi State and Kentucky.

Georgia Tech, however, now owns victories over such highly regarded opponents as Furman, Rice, Southern Methodist and Wednesday night's victim, North Carolina State.

Leslie Hunter produced 17 points and 19 rebounds for Chicago Loyola, which went over 100 points for the sixth straight game against Indiana.

Wake Forest's triumph over Maryland allowed the Deacons to tie Duke for the Atlantic Coast Conference lead, each with 3-0 league marks.

Sophomore standout Bill Bradley turned in another sparkling performance for Princeton, hitting eight of 14 field goal attempts and all nine free throws against Rutgers.

Mississippi State got 22 points from Joe Dan Gold and 20 from Stan Brinker in the easy conquest of Christian Brothers.

AFL Rookie Prize Goes To Substitute

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Spikes, Dallas' star fullback, went out with an injury Oct. 12 in the game with Boston.

There was gloom in the ranks of the Dallas Texans but it lasted only until the following week when a cyclone from Kansas—Curtis McCClinton—was hurled into the breach.

McCClinton played nine games at fullback for the Texans because Spikes, when he got off the injury list, couldn't get his place back. The reasons were obvious.

McCClinton carried the ball 111 times for 604 yards, caught 29 passes for 333 yards and did a terrific job of blocking.

So, Wednesday, McCClinton was named Rookie-of-the-Year in the American Football League and Coach Hank Stram of the Texans heartily agreed with the choice.

"He didn't get an opportunity to play until Spikes was injured but he took advantage of the opportunity and contributed greatly to the success of our football team," said Stram. "He has all the natural ability, intelligence and temperament to be one of the truly great fullbacks of football."

The 230-pound McCClinton, with speed to burn, was one of the big reasons Dallas won the Western Division of the AFL and plays at Houston Sunday for the championship.

Bowling Green Cagers Set For Tournament In Philly

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —Bowling Green, bouncing along the basketball trail at a merry clip, shoots for more honors next week at the Quaker City Tournament in Philadelphia.

The unbeaten Falcons already have swept past four opponents in convincing style. A championship in the holiday tournament would boost Bowling Green's national stock and give the BeeGees a good shot at breaking into the elite category—the Top Ten.

Coach Harold Anderson's nifty squad showed plenty of class last Saturday when it raced to an easy 83-58 triumph over tough Western Kentucky.

Among other things, the victory marked the first time the Bowling Green team had beaten the Hilltoppers on the loser's floor; it was the worst home court defeat in 16 years for Western and it snapped a 29-game home winning streak for the Kentuckians.

The Falcons are led by 6-foot-11 Nate Thurmond and 6-1 Howard Komives, a tremendous 1-2 punch that has left opponents reeling.

Thurmond, for example, poured in 25 points and grabbed 28 rebounds in the Western tilt. This lanky senior, one of the finest defensive players in the country, has averaged 17.2 rebounds and 16.7 points a game in his last two seasons.

Komives, a southpaw standout who set a school record as a soph with 526 points, has a deadly jump shot and last year hit on 45 per cent of his shots. His .859 accuracy from the free throw line ranked him seventh in the nation.

Anderson, whose teams have won 485 games in 28 years going into this season, has 12 lettermen back from last year's squad which turned in a gaudy

Dillon Area Tagged As New State Park

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dillon Reservoir five miles northwest of Zanesville has been designated officially an Ohio state park.

The action was taken at a recent meeting of the Natural Resources Commission. At the same time Lawrence King was named park manager.

The reservoir, built by the U.S. Corps of Engineers and embracing an area of 7,454 acres, has been under control of the department of Natural Resources since Sept. 27 when a 50-year license agreement was signed with the Corps.

Development plans call for future construction of a swimming beach, marina and camping area by the Division of Parks.

Passes Bring Grid Oddities

Navy's Sleeper Play Tops Football Quirks

NEW YORK (AP)—Every college football season produces some oddities, but three of them take the cake this time and all of them involve the forward pass.

There was Navy's sleeper play against Pittsburgh, Yale's illegal pass against Princeton, and All-America quarterback George Mira's 4-yard pass caught by All-America quarterback George Mira.

Many other freak and unusual situations came to light in the annual year-end Associated Press poll of the past pickin' parade, but the three incidents mentioned wound up in a dead heat at the top.

The old sleeper play, where a man lay prone near the sidelines when the teams lined up then took a long pass while undetected by the defensive club, has been outlawed.

But Navy Coach Wayne Hardin dusted it off Oct. 27 when Navy beat Pitt 32-9 in the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk, Va.

Pitt led 3-0 on Rick Lesson's 37-yard field goal early in the first quarter. After the kickoff, Navy halfback Jim Stewart went to the right flank, appearing to limp before halting near the sideline. When the ball was snapped, Stewart dashed downfield unopposed and caught a pass from quarterback Roger Staubach to complete a 66-yard touchdown play.

On Nov. 17, Princeton's fourth period score gave the Tigers a 14-10 victory over Yale, and saved referee Ed Myer from considerable embarrassment. Yale had scored on an illegal touchdown pass in the third period, and that could have decided the game.

Ed McCarthy, Yale quarterback handed off to fullback Pete Cummings who was trapped on a run and tossed to McCarthy—an ineligible receiver—in the end zone.

It was a night game at Miami Sept. 29, with Miami playing Texas as Christian, but the lights didn't get into Mira's eyes. One of his passes was deflected by a TCU defender, Mira caught it and gained four yards, and the NCAA put it down in the records as a completed pass, Mira to Mira. The record book had better put in an asterisk and explain that one for readers in 1970.

New York Giant followers may be having some trouble with their spelling. Many of them think that "title" is spelled "Tittle."

Braves Grab NL Defense Honors

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves captured team and individual defensive honors in the National League in 1962, the official averages released Wednesday disclosed.

The Braves had three fielding leaders—first baseman Joe Adcock .997, second baseman Frank Bolling .989 and catcher Del Crandall .994. Other pace-setters were shortstop Jose Pagan of San Francisco .873, third baseman Don Hoak, Pittsburgh .969, outfielder Tony Gonzalez, Philadelphia 1.000 and pitcher Dallas Green, also of the Phillies, 1.000.

Milwaukee had the highest collective average, .980, followed by St. Louis with .979. Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco and Cincinnati finished in a four-way deadlock for third at .977.

Syracuse University has a father-son combination in football. Ted Dailey is the team's defensive line coach. Son Jack is a junior quarterback.

Your Horoscope

The Stars Say—By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

ADVERSE aspects indicate a need for caution on the morrow. Be careful in personal relationships and do nothing to antagonize either friend or foe.

In business matters, continue the practices which you have found to be sound and prudent, and do not permit yourself to become discouraged by temporary delays or obstacles. There are more stimulating days coming your way.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope warns that you may have to cope with some financial problems during June, August and November, but the configurations indicate that, if met with courage, good judgment and realism, they can be easily solved.

Do not allow worry or pessimism to interfere with the fine headway you can make this year despite temporary setbacks.

Important Meeting

Between late June and early October, there is a strong possibility that you will meet someone who may be of great importance to your future, either romantically or careerwise. There is also indication of stimulating social activities and travel during the same period.

Make the most of business opportunities available in late March, since successes then can be prolonged for some time.

A child born on this day will be methodical and enterprising but will be apt to harbor grievances and grudges for months, even years.

Two Injured In City Crash

Cars Demolished At Intersection

Two Fayette Countians involved in a major two-car crash at Clinton and McKinley Aves. late Wednesday afternoon escaped with relatively minor injuries. The mishap was one of three city police investigated between noon and 6 p.m.

Police said the cars — driven by Richard E. Patton, 32, Stafford Rd., and Betty Lou Martindale, 20, Prairie Rd. — traveling in opposite directions on Clinton Ave., collided at the McKinley Ave. intersection where Patton attempted to turn left. Patrolman Forrest Penwell cited Patton for failure to yield the right of way.

Patton escaped injury altogether, but Mrs. Martindale and a passenger in her car, James Daley, 72, of 315 N. North St., were taken by ambulance to Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Martindale was treated for lacerations on her right knee and mouth, and Daley for a fractured right elbow. Both were later discharged.

Penwell said both cars were demolished.

IN TWO OTHER less serious accidents Wednesday:

Cars driven by Clarence R. Everhart, 50, of 120 S. North St., and Earl Phillip Grimm, 81, of 321 Ely St., collided at Market and Hinde Sts. about 1 p.m., when one of them pulled into a parking space and struck the other stopped at the traffic light. There was only moderate damage, and police made no arrests.

Cars driven by Heber W. Roe, 71, of 610 Leesburg Ave., and Violet Lyttton, 42, of 722 E. Market St., collided in the 100 block of N. Fayette St., as one of them was backing from a parking position. Police estimated damage to Mrs. Lyttton's car at $45 and none to the other. There were no citations.

Fund Being Raised For Chillicothe Branch Of Ohio U.

CHILLICOTHE — Chillicotheans have contributed $150,000 toward the $200,000 fund for establishment of a permanent campus of Ohio University at Chillicothe, Win Elliott, general chairman of the drive announced.

Contributions have come from industries, businesses, organizations and individuals.

Elliott cautioned that the last $50,000 will be the most difficult to raise and urged everyone to exert the best possible effort to put the drive over the top.

Plans are proceeding for organization of the county. State Rep. Myrl Shoemaker, vice chairman for the county, said that Lloyd Streitenberger, a member of the Centralia Board of Education, is serving as captain of the Adelphi - Hallsville - Kinnickinnick area; County Recorder Ted Ringer is serving in a similar capacity in Frankfort; Mr. Shoemaker is supervising work in the Bainbridge-Bourneville area.

A meeting will be held next week in Waverly, according to Elliott, to build an organization there. Mrs. Jacob Kalis is assisting in this area.

Miami Trace Board Seeks Proposals On School Bus Maintenance Program

The Miami Trace Board of Education will ask commercial garages and other qualified mechanics for proposals on a detailed school bus "preventive maintenance" program which was outlined Wednesday night by Walter W. Boyer, executive head of the district.

The program, calling for comprehensive 2,000-mile and 10,000-mile checks on transportation equipment, is designed not only as a safety measure but as a means of forestalling major repairs by discovering future troubles before they get out of hand.

Boyer presented long lists of features to be checked at each inspection and a time schedule for checking each of the 37 board-owned buses now operated by the district. The board has one stand-by bus for emergency use.

THERE IS a shop building on the Jeffersonville school property which could be used as a maintenance garage, but both Boyer and the board indicated a preference for a more centralized location.

Qualified mechanics who do not now have suitable garage facilities also are invited to contact the board if they have suggestions as to how the maintenance work could be handled.

Board member Richard Snyder suggested that a preventive maintenance program be combined with a series of clinics for bus drivers at which operational and maintenance problems would be discussed and safety rules emphasized.

THE BOARD made plans for a public auction in February at which more than 300 items of surplus furniture and equipment will be sold to the highest bidder.

This equipment, most of it from the former five area high schools and the closed Marion, Bookwalter and New Holland grade schools, includes stoves, refrigerators, sewing machines, motors, manual training equipment, tables, chairs, desks, air compressors, water heaters, home economics equipment, lockers and a stripped-down school bus.

These items are stored in Marion, Bloomingburg, Wayne and Jeffersonville buildings but will be collected at Marion school for the auction.

The date for the sale will be set after auctioneers are contacted.

MRS. KARMA BREEDLOVE, wife of Frank Breedlove, vocational agriculture instructor at the new high school, was employed as a teacher of English and social studies at Bloomingburg for the balance of the school year.

Breedlove, who was nominated by County Superintendent Roger O. Hoffman, will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. B. Cleo Dignan.

Westfall Bids Exceed Estimate

CIRCLEVILLE — Bids for construction of the new Westfall High School have been opened but Jud Lanman, Westfall District superintendent, announced that the contract has not been awarded pending further study of the bids.

In the May primary election voters in the district passed a $1,395,000 bond issue for the erection of a new high school to combine the present Monroe, Wilkinsport, Darby and Jackson High Schools.

Land for the high school has been purchased at Pherson. Lanman noted that all bids submitted exceeded the architect's estimate of the amount for the general contract.
